N. CALIFORNIA PUBLIC RECORDS ACT

The County is a public agency subject to the disclosure requirements of the California Public Records Act ("CPRA"). If Contractor's proprietary information is contained in documents or information submitted to County, and Contractor claims that such information falls within one or more CPRA exemptions, Contractor must clearly mark such information "CONFIDENTIAL AND PROPRIETARY," and identify the specific lines containing the information. In the event of a request for such information, the County will make best efforts to provide notice to Contractor prior to such disclosure. If Contractor contends that any documents are exempt from the CPRA and wishes to prevent disclosure, it is required to obtain a protective order, injunctive relief or other appropriate remedy from a court of law in Santa Clara County before the County is required to respond to the CPRA request. If Contractor fails to obtain such remedy within the time the County is required to respond to the CPRA request, County may disclose the requested information.

Contractor further agrees that it shall defend, indemnify and hold County harmless against any claim, action or litigation (including but not limited to all judgments, costs, fees, and attorney's fees) that may result from denial by County of a CPRA request for information arising from any representation, or any action (or inaction), by the Contractor.

Contractor shall defend, indemnify and hold the County harmless against any claim, action or litigation (including but not limited to all judgments, costs, fees, and reasonable attorney's fees) by a third party alleging the Deliverables and/or services provided pursuant to this Agreement infringe upon any intellectual property rights of third parties. R. OWNERSHIP RIGHTS TO MATERIALS/RESTRICTIONS ON USE

All materials obtained, developed or prepared by Contractor in the course of performing services hereunder, including but not limited to videotapes, audio recordings, still photographs, ads or brochures, and the derivative works, patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other proprietary rights associated therewith (collectively "Deliverables"), shall be the sole and exclusive property of the County. The County has the exclusive royalty-free irrevocable right to duplicate, publish or otherwise use for any purpose, all materials prepared under this Agreement. If Contractor wishes to use the materials prepared hereunder for any purpose including but not limited to promotional, educational or commercial purposes, the Contractor shall obtain prior written authorization from the County, which consent may be withheld by the County in its sole discretion. Contractor acknowledges that all original works of authorship which are made by Contractor (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of this Agreement and which are protectable by copyright are "works made for hire," as that term is defined in the United States Copyright Act (17 U.S.C., Section 101), and shall belong solely to County. Contractor agrees that the County will be the copyright owner in all copyrightable works of every kind and description created or developed by Contractor, solely or jointly with others, in connection with any agreement with the County. If requested to, and at no further expense to the County, Contractor will execute in writing any acknowledgments or assignments of copyright ownership of such copyrightable works as may be appropriate for preservation of the worldwide ownership in the County and its nominees of such copyrights. If the initial notification is by phone, Contractor shall provide a written notice within 5 days of the incident. 2. The County acknowledges that some insurance requirements contained in this Agreement may be fulfilled by self-insurance on the part of the Contractor. However, this shall not in any way limit liabilities assumed by the Contractor under this Agreement. 4. The County reserves the right to withhold payments to the Contractor in the event of material noncompliance with the insurance requirements outlined above.

If such bond is canceled or reduced, Contractor will notify County immediately, and County may withhold further payment to Contractor until proper coverage has been obtained. Failure to give such notice may be cause for termination of this Agreement, at the option of County.
